A few words about us

Rhodian Tours is a Destination Management Company serving MICE professionals and international clients that choose Rhodes and Athens in Greece, to host their events, since 2005. A team of experts will accommodate all the needs for events of any type, and almost any size.

The quality of our travel services is based on our personal experience, since we test and sample each accommodation, spa, meal, or entertainment option, we have visited and explored each venue, attraction, we know how to host each event, taking care of all details, abiding to any specifications, handling all challenges and limitations.

Our strong knowledge of each of our destinations, its facilities, venues and attractions and our love of the destination, drive us to organize amazing experiences on behalf of our clients, for their guests. The favored Greek concept of Philoxenia – to consider any foreigner as a friend – is at the heart of our mentality. Each guest has to receive top service, enjoy the best accommodation, and gain the most memorable experience of the destination Athens.
